Snyder	Snyder Daily News		editor1@snyderdailynews.com	Letters to the editor must be signed and must give the address of the writer. Letters should be of reasonable length. The Snyder Daily News reserves the right to refuse letters if they contain libelous material or information deemed in poor taste. Following a long-standing policy and practice, Snyder Daily News does not publish letters pertaining to a candidate or issue once an election has been called. Opinions in favor or in opposition to an issue or candidate may be published in paid political advertisements. Letters to be published in the weekend edition must be submitted no later than noon Thursday.

Victoria	The Advocate	http://www.victoriaadvocate.com/cobrand/submit.shtml	letters@vicad.com	The Advocate welcomes letters on topics of general interest. For purposes of verification, the writers name, home address and telephone number must be included. The address and phone number will not be published, but the writer's name will not be withheld from publication. When work-place policies allow, it is helpful to include a work telephone number as well. Letters are limited to 150 words for thank-you letters. There is a 300-word limit on letters pertaining to elections and candidates. For all other letters there is a 400-word limit. All letters are subject to editing. Individuals are limited to publication of one letter a month.
